

YOUR LOVE NEVER FAILS - NEVER GIVES UP ON ME

Lately this song has resonated in my heart...reminding me of how God has had His hand on my life. From a very young age, I knew I was different; I "liked" girls and wanted to be a boy. I can still remember junior high looking so much like a boy and acting like one... A girl passed me a note saying she liked me! My thoughts "If only I was a boy, then everything would be ok" but I wasn't. Confused and unsure myself I struggled in the years to come.

Till one day a lady approached me who had been praying for me and invited me to church. As I allowed God room in my heart, He gave me perspective that my life was not mine but His. Years later I married and gave into my desires to be with a woman and yet God never gave up on me... Always pulling on me.

I cannot say that my walk has been easy, I wish no one to walk it, but reality is many do and many now are given an opportunity I wasn't aware of, to change their gender. Would I have done this, maybe. All I know is what I know now and "This One Thing Remains.... Your Love Never Fails, You Never Give Up, Never Giving Up On Me!"

Forever Grateful. Taynawin
